Charlie McGrory Sues Charlie Sheen for "Being A Big Dink" "That lunatic is hurting my reputation with the ladies..."

(AP) Attorneys for Charles "Charlie" McGrory have filed a cease and desist motion in U.S. Federal Court against Hollywood loose cannon Charlie Sheen for causing "irreparable damage" to their client's overall reputation, coolness quotient, social standing in the community and his general mojo and demeanor" and are suing for two million dollars.

Pat Weller, lead attorney for Mr. McGrory stated that "Mr. Sheen's antics and bizarre behavior has actually besmirched Mr. McGrory's reputation" which has hurt attendance on both his "Charlie's Corner" radio chat shows and monthly sock hops. Furthermore, the suit alleges that Mr. Sheen's behavior has caused many of Charlie's fans to assume that his show was cancelled and he is involved in contentious contract negotiations. "There is no truth to that rumor," said KDHL station manager, Lynette Putz-Lazarz. "We inked Charlie to a new five year contract in December" and stated that "she has been on the phone all week", re-assuring sponsors at McDonald's™, Crocs™, Axe™, Mission Data and Kimberly-Clark™ that Charlie has "every intention" to honor his commitments. "We may lose Mission," said Lynette, "but I am working on scoring another fig company right now."

"There was a time when getting on Charlie's show was a major 'A-List' coup," whispered long-time Winona celebrity watcher Conrad Dennis. "But since Sheen has been ranting and raving, Charlie's shows are only attracting the lowest level celebs, like Curt Breeding, Mark Fielding, David Dahl, Charo and Northfield maquinaria del partido Alec Noll. If this slide isn't fixed soon, Charlie is going to get killed during Sweeps Week."

"I Am Still Here" Says Bill Miller Snubs Continuing Through 2011?

(UPI) "I am not complaining," said Gulf War vet and long-time MNL subject Bill Miller, "but after twenty four years, one has some expectations. It's time to show me a little love but I guess Don Smith is the new pretty face these days."

(Little) Billy called the news conference to share concerns about his lack of presence in the 2011 Newsletters. "I saw the galleys through August, and there minimal mention of me. It was the same stuff: Dapper blah blah, Maggie blah blah, prison jokes, Karen Ayre recipes, Katie Barnett dental tips and the yammering on why Roger Bongers is so cool. Hey, I'm coolhello? Anyone there?"
