

Mom's Newsletter

Volume 32, Number 3 "Well, On the Upside, You Know Who Your Friends Are" April 2019

(Andy) Mueller Report Released

"This is No Big Deal...She Farts All the Time"

(Cabo San Lucas) The (Andy) Mueller Report, is set to be published this summer but a growing public outcry is building for an early and complete release of the entire document. "This attention is a bit odd," smiled Andy, "because other than Billy and sometimes Cassie, no one has given a shit before. And when I think about it, I think Billy was just being nice." While there are many past copies available within the family archives, the 2019 edition has created high public demand. It is self-authored annually by Andy Mueller (see above) with baby mama Chas.

The report, historically a detailed listing of his grievances towards the family, is viewed as a sure sign of summer and lists behaviors and actions that troubled Andy over the last twelve months. "I think the report was instrumental in improving Cassie's demeanor, hygiene standards and general likeability," said Joanie Miller. "You can say what you want about Andy, but his observations are spot on and it is so nice that Cassie looks like she is not in 4-H anymore. "The full report, per family lore, will be available at this summer's Bingstock.

The early release requests for the 2019 report has resulted in the below summary to be issued to quiet the worldwide public demand. The summary includes:

- If you tickle Cassie, she still farts. If you threaten to tickle Cassie, she will also fart.
- David Liverseed is super cool and almost too pretty for his own good.
- The best use of my Mom's banana bread is as a dog laxative.
- I continue to wonder why people find the Bing Miller joke archive funny.
- If I ever get to Las Vegas, I am looking up Curt Breeding. I want to hang out with that cat.
- The amount of goat and cow shit in Billy's barn this Spring must have been something to see.

Spring Updates: Liz, Dapper and Lasagna

Liz Leaves the Sweet Science, Dapper Goes Outside

Liz McGrory has hung up the boxing gloves after receiving a brutal beating in a super flyweight title bout against her far younger and taller opponent, Jana "Boom Boom" Stiever. Liz said, "My apologies to my pal Dixie Pluemer, but I was beaten like a red-headed stepchild. My days as a professional boxer are now over and I want to thank all my fans around the world. Now, will SOMEBODY answer that phone?" Her long time cut-man, Heather Lohrmann concluded "The old girl has lost the eye of the tiger."

Mike Dapper was hauled out of his house, after six in the evening, and forced to both mix and mingle with other people until it was officially dark outside. Mike (see left), had not been out after dark since 1992 "He is kind of a homebody," said family friend Savannah Goodwin.

"He much prefers the company of cats, winemakers and witty librarians. Socializing with others is not his strong suit."

The National Lasagna Society has placed the community of Millersburg on its short list of potential sites for its new museum to be open in 2022. "All of Rice County, especially Millersburg, has long been a friend of lasagna," said society spokesperson Allyn (nee Jones) McColley. The press release stated that the society has received "nothing but love" from the Millersburg citizens and look forward to working with the local lasagna aficionados. Local chapter president, Derek Sayres, said the chapter was flattered with the recognition and "hungry" for the final decision.