Summertime=Learning Time "Ain't No Cure for the Summer School Blues"

John McGrory has been working on his thrust and cape moves all morning and is exhausted. "You think the cape thrust is easy, amigo?" signed John as he pulled up his pink socks for another round of competition.

"I have a cape inspection and bull-baiting mid-term this week as well as a fitting for my little pony outfit, I don't know where the time goes but as we say in the ring, sometimes the bull leaves the querencia and sometimes they don't."

Cate DeLaRosa is currently elbow-deep in her Auctioneering Final Exams. "It has been great ride; learning how to work a room, all the enunciation exercises and hamstring stretching with my coach Mike Dapper. I am also psyched as I am coming into the final stages of my Auctioneering Degree, winning the 'Susie Palm Meads Yap-Yap' award for excellence in female auctioneering ('The Whippoorwill's Ass') and for the entire local nail shop community being behind me 110%."

"Sue Palm-Meads is the standard of all chick auctioneers around the world," wept the 30ish Orono beauty, "Her gavel work, her room presence, her driving ability and never-ending patter of her voice going on and on and on and on and on. As I am finalizing my academic goals, I just want to say that she is the gold standard for us all. She gives a voice to those who cannot stop talking."
