Class Action Lawsuit Looming?

MAGGIE SEARS ASKS DEMANDS EQUAL COVERAGE

Attorney Weller Screams "First Amendment Something, Something"

(Rice County Courthouse) As frantic paparazzi fired off one flash after another, Margaret "Maggie" Sears and her long-time counselor, ambulance-chaser and mouthpiece Patricia "Pat" Weller read from a prepared statement stating that it is "high time that the Newsletter move away from the old chestnut topics such as Mike's Large Head Jokes, the editor's troubling 'fascination' with Dixean Drager-Clooney and start giving the younger readership what they want."

"My client is asking for at least one new story line a year," said the youthful attorney Weller. "And a two-year moratorium on any stories about Dapper, anything related to Shieldsville or William Miller, Jr. Is that too much to ask? "

When asked for a personal comment, Ms. Sears looked up from her cell phone and pointed at Ms. Weller and said. "What? Hey pal, what she said" and then took a call and headed for the limo.

2014 HUSBAND OF THE YEAR: TOM BEYL

Win Puts Beyl in MNHHOF: "Welcome Aboard" Says Bob Barnett

(Las Vegas) Tom Beyl snared his third "Husband of the Year" award which automatically places him in the Mom's Newsletter Husband Hall of Fame (MNHHOF). "I want to welcome Tom to this group of super husbands" said MNHHOF legend emeritus, John McKee, "it's nice to see more gray hair."

Two-time winners Don Smith, Kevin Thar and Mike Dapper were disappointed not to have gotten a call from the Hall but insiders have hinted that they are all targets of an elaborate whisper campaign which appears to have the sole purpose of leaving the rapidly-aging trio out of the Hall thus relying on the third award to do it. "I may have to wait to get help from the veteran's committee. It's all politics," sighed Smith. "Look at my numbers: led the league in all the key categories for many years. And ask my wife, Joan. She will likely attest that she is the luckiest woman in the world...well, maybe next to Deb Thar."
