December 2012

Happy Holidays Everyone!

Volume 25, Number 10

Graybeard Dean Lohrmann Hits Big 5-0 "Speak Up!" says Dean, "Stop Mumbling!"

(Rogers) Smelling of old musky pomade and pizza sauce, the newest member of the over 50 club looked at the assembled group of friends and family and said in a giggly high girlish voice, "Okay, there are going to be some new rules with Mom's Newsletter with the first one being more duck cartoons* but I found them hilarious at Mike's expense." [see below]

As the crowd leaned forward feigning interest, Dean pulled out a crinkled and frosting-smearred list and began to detail his birthday litany of demands:

- "Stop hating me for my youthful good looks." [Once this was demand was proclaimed, Jill broke out in sobs and said, "Never baby! Never!"]
- "I would like the pictures of my trampoline boxing match removed from the internet." [Check out July 2003 Issue of Mom's Newsletter called "Heather's Graduation" in which Dean gets his clocked cleaned by Andy.]
- "When you call me Grandpa Dean [Yes, someone is pregnant...], draw it out like 'Grand-paaaaaaw.'"

Obligatory Wooden Duck Cartoon for Dean*

*Dean's birthday wish has pushed the regularly scheduled "Sarah Barnett, Blonde Detective" strip to January 2013.
