

MOM'S NEWSLETTER

Charlie McGrory's 2014 Year in Review
One of Mom's Newsletter's most feared but respected investigative journalists, Charlie McGrory tells it like it is for 2014. "I don't play favorites with my insights...my only love is for the truth. Accuracy always." -C.E.M.

Thumbs Down:
Michele Lenz-Noll for paying off that sweet Julie Nelson from KARE 11 at the State Fair to say "that she could not believe she was the mother" of boyish-faced Ensign (J.G.) Alec Noll. "Hey, all I know is $100 still goes a long way," said the still-nimble 50 year old. "Just like it did in 1975 or was it 1973..."

Thumbs Up:
My brother John McGrory gets a thumbs up for agreeing to re-style cousin Maggie's hairdo into something more of a "burning building" (her words) style. He has left the boring world of digital curation and graduate studies to re-define hair styling as a new art form in 2015. C'est Manifique!

Thumbs Up:
Don Smith for walking away from his odd but lucrative modeling career when it was discovered that his modeling agency was connected to the ISIS terrorist group. "The decision was not that hard," said the barely-graying super model, "they paid late, in dinars and were always yelling at me. If I wanted yelling, I could talk to my wife."

Aunt Lorraine Has Title Bout Spry Nonagenarian Eyeballing Flyweight Belt

(Las Vegas) Lorraine Miller throws down the dumb bells and grabs her mouthpiece as she waves yet another sparring partner off their stationary bike and into the ring for likely pummeling. Lorraine says, "Let's go Slappy, I got dinner at 4:30 and you are NOT having me miss the tater tot hotdish."

Fresh off her successful qualifying fight at Mystic Lake, Lorraine is preparing for a long-overdue title fight in Vegas. "Pearl Harbor postponed my last fight," said the quick-as-lightning senior citizen, "but the only thing stopping me this time is if Joanie finds out I am prize fighting again." Curt Breeding, Henderson, NV's local bookie reports that "Lorraine is a 5 to 1 favorite with a 'lot of Minnesota and Wisconsin' money rolling in on the gal. They love this flyweight Cinderella."

Relatives are mixed on Lorraine's return to the squared circle. "Grandma has always has a great left hook," said favorite granddaughter Lorrie Beyl, "but I am worried about her glass jaw and she is a sucker for an uppercut."
