Four year Spinning Sound Stops Suddenly

"I was just getting used to the noise."

(SW Faribault) Exactly at 11:00 am on Wednesday January 20th, the loud whining spinning noise that was emanating out of the Maple Lawn cemetery suddenly stopped after four years.

Theories on why the intense spinning sound ended at the exact moment of the recent inauguration but family watchers are split on the numerous storylines. The family has prided themselves with their wide range of opinions, allegiances and approaches to the body politic. "This is not a group of dead-eye shrinking violets," said Dixie Drager-Clooney, "there is a LOT of unique flavors in this metaphorical box of chocolates."

"They got one of everything in the Miller group," said family historian Allyn (nee Jones) McColley. "The family tree is full of moonshiners, vegetarians, Shriners, raconteurs, musicians, Wiccans, cloggers, hand models, contortionists, grifters, drifters, crochet enthusiasts and now I hear Andy McGrory is going around crowing about the benefits of using an air fryer. They rarely agree on anything, but their family reunions are always very entertaining."

Once the sound abated after exactly four years, the shock throughout Faribault caused a general relief mixed with curiosity. A news conference was hastily called at the greatly relieved Fairbo Lanes Bowling Alley, to answer the obvious questions of its source as well as its conclusion. "I was kind of getting used to it," said L. William Miller, "It always reminded me of my cousin Lorrie Beyl's vocal lilt, but it is kind of nice to hear other sounds again."

Dapper Denies COVID Vaccine Request

"I believe in it, but I am NOT 85 years old"

(St Paul) The local COVID-19 Mobile Inoculation team were parked out in front of Mike Dapper's tony capitol city mansion waiting to attempt another inoculation of the rapidly aging man about town. "He can't hide forever," said newly licensed inoculation professional James "Snapper" Batchelder, "We need to finish giving vaccines to the eighty plus year oldsters and he is the last holdout on my route."

"I am from the class of 74," screamed Dapper as he barely jumped an almost two-foot hedge during a recent escape attempt but was retained by authorities when his mitten became snagged on the hedge. "I am not supposed to get the vaccine until June or July." When informed of his comments, Batchelder laughed and said, "Probably the class of 1874."

Sherwin-Williams Creates "Lohrmann Gray"

The hottest new color shown at the Home Improvement Expo is "Lohrmann Gray." Inspired by aging grandfather Dean Lohrmann and his shockingly gray hair that appeared almost overnight. "I was kind of a dirty auburn pretty boy," said the cute tradesman. "The next day he looked like a bristly crew-cutted adult diaper spokesman with a stupid grin," said wife Jill (nee St. John) Lohrmann, "and as Bing Miller said, "All cats are gray at night."

2020 Bingstock Tickets to be Honored.

The Bingstock Board of Directors just announced that last year's Bingstock tickets will be honored at the gate. "We cancelled both the 'Whose Spoon is Whose' and the Curt Breeding sing-along and look-alike contest but the rest of the events are on schedule," said Amy Miller. "Oh, and goat kissing will be discouraged but not taken off the opening and closing ceremonies."
