

Mom's Newsletter

July 2012

"Days should be rigorously planned, nights left open to chance."

Volume 25, Number 5

Entrepreneur Opens Driveway Venture "Hair Today, Gone Tamale"

(Walton Pond) Ex-dancer Kim Barnett has opened up a combination hair salon and Mexican food cart to exploit the sleepy market segment of hungry individuals in need of haircuts. "I started with my own kids; braiding their hair while they ate their lunch," recalled Kim, "I just took the idea and moved out to the driveway with my brushes and toaster oven....and things took off."

Photo by Curt Breeding

Many neighbors stop for a quick trim and a bowl of gazpacho ("I call it the two bowl special") especially with the social event of the summer season happening in late June. Curt Breeding is moving to Las Vegas. He and his current wife Bonnie have decided to head to the place that would be a great place to raise a family "in case we have another baby. Las Vegas seemed like a great place to start again as part of the ~~Witness Protection Program~~, I mean retirement plan."

"The plan is that they are leaving on June 29th," said neighborhood social secretary Karen Ayre. "And the party is on the 30th." When asked why the party was one day late, she smiled and said, "I didn't say the party was for them."

Newsletter Reader News and Notes "It is ALWAYS Something"

Jane Calls from Heaven?

Calls Favorite Son via Land Line

(Bloomington) The favorite son of Jane Sears received this phone message: "Hi, it's me. I don't why I called. It must have been something. But now I cannot remember. Bye." Experts, upon listening to the message, have concluded it must have come from Heaven, the current location of Jane Sears. "The only remaining mystery, said famous ghost detective Don Smith, "is the caller ID showed Winona...not Heaven. Hmmm."

"Yoo Hoo..."

"Liz is a rat-faced S-C-U-M-B-A-L-L" says Michele Lenz-Noll

(Lakeville) "What is 'G-L-E-E-T?'" said Michele Lenz-Noll as she looks at her syrup-stained iPad™ and throws her Scrabble™ dictionary into a pile of freshly drain beer cans. "Liz is a rat-faced cheater!" says the fortyish mother of one. "Where does she find these words, lanugo, bathykolpian, farctate, pyknic and weiner," sighed the raven-haired mother. "I use words like "slurp" and "fart" and I get creamed by 300 points!"

SARAH BARNETT, BLONDE DETECTIVE

Mike and Joanie Boysen Banned from Art Fairs

(Edina) Details are sketchy but it appears that the Boysens have been banned from all local art fairs. "Mike tells the locals he is used to 'pose' for sculptors for book money in college," said Joanie. "It is embarrassing when he insists on wearing his Jerry Sandusky football jersey."