

MOM'S NEWSLETTER

OCTOBER 2008

"Special Extra Spooky Halloween Edition"

Volume 21, Number 8

SCARY OCTOBER UPDATES...

CURT BREEDING started a romance column. "I know everything what guys think from my experience as an ass model. But what I really know is what the ladies are always thinking and it isn't soup." (His italics).

Screaming girls outside ALEC NOLL'S Lakeville house have started a vigil demanding he announce his college choice. "He is so cute. I want to matriculate him silly" shouted a high school senior...."

GARY GILBERTSON has just changed his legal name to "The Gary Gilbertson." When asked why, he mused and said, "I thought changing it to 'Gary Gilbertson™' or 'The Gary' was too conceited."

ANN DYSTE and JENNY AYRE are starring on an off-off-Broadway play based on "Bend It Like Beckham." It is called "Bend It Kind of Like Beckham But in a Far More Classy and Leggy Manner."

MNL READERS' HALLOWEEN TALES

MARK FIELDING: "When I was in the sixth grade, I think I was seventeen, a few friends and I dressed up as The Beatles for Halloween. The problem was, in 1981 rural Kentucky, they hadn't yet heard of the band and we were arrested. We spent the night in jail, sharing a cell with a very large hillbilly. I get a nice card from him every year."

DAVID LIVERSEED: "One Halloween, Mom made Jimmy haul me along with him when he and his fellow reprobates went out raising hell under the guise of candy-fueled shenanigans. He wasn't happy about it so he tied me to a tree and gave me ten dollars to keep my mouth shut and untied me after Trick or Treating. Ah, sweet memories."

MARK BOYSEN: "In '74, my first courting phase of Joanie, when I surprised her in costume as Prince Charming. I popped out from behind the El Camino and said, "Happy Halloween, Baby from your Prince...Who is Charming!" And thirty years later, we're married.... so it worked."

MAGGIE SEARS: "I knew I was growing up the year Mom let me borrow her broom in 1997."

"Our Apologies"

There were many red faces last week when upon hearing about the recent article in the Rochester Post-Bulletin about John and Andy McGrory.

Mom's Newsletter readers spent many hours scanning the Olmstead County police blotter, looking for news on their likely felony arrest. However, the story was on the sports page, heralding their athletic skills while actually playing together on the Winona Cotter Varsity Football Team. "Come on," said long-time reader Cindi Ramm. "It was an honest mistake, especially if you know those two knuckleheaded choad sandwiches."

TOP HALLOWEEN COSTUMES IDEAS FOR MOM'S NEWSLETTER READERS...

- 1) RAISIN COOKIE
- 2) THE CHOAD TWINS
- 3) LORRIE BEYL VIZSLA SNOUT
- 4) DON SMITH'S BUTT
- 5) CARDINAL BING
- 6) COOKIE HERRING
- 7) GARY LAZARZ'S LIVER
- 8) "BATWING BOY"
- 9) TOM TESKE NOSE EXTENDER
- 10) DAPPER'S LACK OF JUDGEMENT

